Identification of the principal proposed amendments of a substantive nature discussed:
The examiner called on Nov 23, 2004, to discuss the claims, and referenced the above-listed U.S. Patents. The parties agreed to a later teleconference to give applicant's representative an opportunity to review the references and claims. In a subsequent discussion, for which this is a summary, the parties agreed to the following examiner's amendment:

Claim 1 is amended to include element 15(c) slightly modified to include the language "and beyond" following the word "above."

Claims 8 and 15-23 are cancelled.

Claim 9 is amended to depend from claim 1.

A new claim 24 is added, for which the language is the combination of original claims 1, 10, and 11.

A brief identification of the general thrust of the principal arguments presented to the Examiner: The parties discussed various claimed features of the urinal bottle, including the shape of the body and aspects of the handle. The parties could not agree upon the allowability of the cancelled claims, but agreed that the claims, as amended above, distinguish the cited references.
